

POLICY 5310
STUDENT ATTENDANCE

In accordance with state law, all children who reside within the boundaries of the District and are between six (6) and eighteen (18) years of age must attend school regularly until the end of the term, quarter, or semester in which they become 18 years of age unless:

1. excused for physical or psychological reasons upon the written recommendation of persons designated under state law;
2. excused for reasons outlined in the District's student attendance procedures;
3. excused because of a Board-approved program or curriculum modification;
4. attending an approved private or parochial school or home-based private educational program; or
5. they have graduated from high school.

Legal responsibility for school attendance rests with the parent/guardian or with the student in the event a student is a student not covered by the compulsory attendance laws.

The District shall establish regulations pertaining to attendance, absence, tardiness, and the basis for excused absences. Each principal shall publish and disseminate the regulations to students and parents/guardians.

5. Truancy: "Truancy" means any absence of part or all of one or more days from school during which the school attendance officer, principal, or teacher has not been notified of the legal cause of such absence by the parent or guardian of the absent pupil, and also means intermittent attendance carried on for the purpose of defeating the intent of the compulsory school attendance law.

If the parent/guardian or adult student does not notify the school during the morning on a day when his/her student is absent, it shall be assumed that the student is truant. Such truancy may be reclassified as an excused absence following investigation of the circumstances.

The school shall notify the parent or guardian of a child who has been truant of the child's truancy and direct the parent or guardian to return the child to school no later than the next day on which school is in session or to provide an excuse. The notice under this paragraph shall be
